

2019 ACEN Self-Study Forum

APRIL 11 - 12

Millennium Biltmore Los Angeles
506 S Grand Ave, Los Angeles, CA 90071

BENEFITS

Faculty and staff can expect to see the following benefits from Self-Study Forum attendance:

- In-depth analysis and application of the 2017 Standards and Criteria
- Gaining a deeper understanding of the Self-Study Report expectations
- Getting ready for Peer Review
- Demystifying the accreditation process
- Participating in networking opportunities
- Earning continuing education credit

Furthermore, the ACEN is now offering an additional post-session CEU opportunity titled “Taking it to the Next Level: Tackling Standards 4 and 6 Head On,” focusing on the most challenging lessons learned during the forum and how to avoid the most common pitfalls. Participants of the post-session will walk away with a deeper understanding of the connections between the most commonly cited criteria in Standard 4 and Standard 6. Attendees are highly encouraged to bring their own systematic plan of evaluation, including the end-of-program student learning outcomes, and we will help them apply the 2017 Standards and Criteria to their own program.
